

DR MALINI KARUPIAH
SPORTS PHYSICIAN
HOSPITAL SERDANG
MALAYSIA

Dr Malini Karupiah is currently a sports physician in Hospital Serdang, Malaysia. She received her masters degree in Sports Medicine from University Malaya. She has vast experience working together with Sports Orthopaedics Surgeons in managing traumatic and sports related injury cases in Hospital Serdang and university Putra Malaysia (UPM). The cases varies from acute, repetitive and chronic injuries until complex cases that requires surgical repair, reconstruction or realignment and later on rehabilitation.

She also teaches medical students from UPM, medical assistants and staff in regards about sports medicine.

She is currently the Executive Council Member of the Malaysian Association of Sports Medicine (MASM) and is actively involved in organizing courses and symposiums and conferences in regards with musculoskeletal injuries, exercise prescriptions, basic life support courses. She is also a life member of the Malaysian Association of Orthopedics (MOA) and Malaysia Medical Association (MMA).

She has been invited as speaker by various associations and sports affiliations and has presented oral presentations, abstracts and posters presentations in various locally and internationally conferences such as the 2nd Asean Sports Medicine Conference 2018, Malaysian Orthopedic Association Conference in Penang 2018, and recently she presented 3 presentations at the 6th Asian Football Confederation (AFC) Medical Conference Chengdu, China 2019.

She is also actively involved in various sports coverages.

She was appointed by the National Sports Institute as one of the sports physician for the ASIAN GAMES 2018 Jakarta/Palembang serving the national athletes well being and care medically. She is also involved as on court doctor for Badminton

World Federation (BWF) championships, various locally and internationally football matches as a match/tournament doctor.

She was one of the chief sports physicians serving as the local organising committee (LOC) for Football Association Malaysia (FAM) in the AFC U-16 Championship Malaysia 2018 and was awarded a certificate of recognition and appreciation of her contribution to the success of the AFC U-16 championship Malaysia 2018.

She was recently the match sports physician for the FIFA world Cup Qatar 2022 and AFC Asian Cup 2023 Preliminary Joint Qualification tournament doctor. She was also one of the doctors involved in the International Hockey Federation (FIH) Men's Series Finals Kuala Lumpur appointed by the Malaysia Hockey Federation (MHF) held recently.